The 2018 MGMA Compensation and Production Survey is Now Open!

Our December 2017 Timely Topic suggested some actions you can to take to help insure a successful 2018. One of these actions was to prepare to participate in the Medical Group Management Association’s (MGMA) 2018 surveys. Now is the time to put that preparation to use as the Compensation and Production Survey is open and will remain so through February 16, 2018.

This important survey gathers information that will be helpful to you and your practice. The benchmarks it provides are powerful tools and resources in today’s ever-changing and challenging environment. MGMA offers access to specific tiers of data based on the degree of your participation. Learn more about this survey, how you can participate and how you can access the resulting data via the following information from MGMA:

By participating in the MGMA survey(s), all eligible participants will receive the single-user, limited license version of MGMA DataDive for the survey(s) they participate in. For more information on the benefits of participating, please see our participation benefits.

Get started today! Feb. 16 is the deadline to complete this survey. Once you submit your completed Compensation and Production Survey you can start the Cost and Revenue Survey before it officially opens on Monday, March 5.
